

Who are Friends of Ulumay?

- Friends of Ulumay are a group of citizens in the community who have a common concern for the area of Brevard County Florida, known as Ulumay Wildlife Sanctuary.
- They have conviction that good community service is important to everyone.
- The Friends of Ulumay (FOU) is a non-profit organization involved in conserving and restoring the Sanctuary and adjacent County lands to their natural habitat.
- FOU supports the County Parks and Recreation through activities that include volunteer service, educational and recreational events, and financial assistance for the continuing maintenance of the area.
- A membership entitles you to the FOU newsletter and website, admission to informational meetings, field trip opportunities, and voting privileges at the annual meeting.

Friends of Ulumay Objectives

- To create public support for Ulumay Wildlife Sanctuary.
- To encourage gifts, endowments and memorials for the FOU. Also provide fundraising assistance for future growth in facilities.
- To recruit volunteers to provide services to Brevard County Parks and Recreation and the Environmentally Endangered Lands (EEL) Program.
- To sponsor programs designed to add to the environmental awareness of the community.
- To bring public attention to outstanding achievements of the Brevard County Environmentally Endangered Lands (EEL) Program.
